

Mary Rogers
CJA Specialist
U.S. District Court, Southern District of Ohio

Mary Rogers is the CJA Specialist for the United States District Court, Southern District of Ohio. Her office is located in Cincinnati.

Mary is responsible for auditing/processing payment vouchers for the Criminal Justice Act Panel Attorneys through the CJA eVoucher system. She is also involved with the training of new attorneys and/or mentees.

Prior to her employment with the Court, Mary worked a number of years in the legal field beginning as a Paralegal in private practice and with the Kenton County Clerk's office in Kentucky. In 2007, Mary began working in the U.S. District Court Clerk's Office as a Case Administrator and then as a Courtroom Deputy for Judge Timothy S. Black. In 2016, Mary began performing Courtroom Deputy duties for several Judges in Cincinnati and was assigned additional responsibilities related to special projects in the Clerk's Office. In April 2019, she accepted the position of CJA Specialist in addition to continuing as the Courtroom Deputy for Judge Herman J. Weber and Judge Sandra S. Beckwith.

Her education includes a Bachelor's of Arts degree in Anthropology, a Bachelor's of Arts degree in Fine Arts - both from Northern Kentucky University as well as a paralegal certificate from Kentucky Career Institute (n/k/a Beckfield College). Outside of work, she enjoys time with her family, friends and traveling.