Richard Monahan – Sixth Circuit & Supreme Court Updates

Richard Monahan is the First Assistant in the Federal Public Defender's Office for the Southern District of Ohio and has worked in the office for 21 years. Previously, he maintained a solo criminal defense practice. Richard received his J.D. from Mississippi College School of Law in 1995, and his undergraduate degree in Theater from Florida State University in 1989. He has been published in the Mississippi College Law Review, the Federal Sentencing Reporter, and the OACDL Vindicator. Richard also is the long-time editor of the Federal Public Defender publication, Precedential Value. He has taught at numerous CLE seminars in Ohio and Kentucky, as well as several national training sessions for the Office of Defender Services.